Embroidery is all about threads. Gold and silver threads arehighly in demand today, as they are much in vogue nowadays and moreover conveya royal feel to outfit. Other color threads like maroon, red, etc are also machin use. However, before choosing the thread for the embroidery check whetherthe color of the lehenga and the threads used is complementing each other ornot. The embroidered bridal lehengas are available in diverse colors, frompastels to darker hues, like green, lemon, lilac, pink, sky blue etc toextravagant colors like dark green, blood red, maroon, purple, orange and soon

Embroidered Indian ghagra choli is immensely admired roundthe globe. It is one of the oldest forms of Indian lehenga choli developedsince the times of tribal and nomads as well as royal people of olden times.Even in the present day, the traditional dress for women in Rajasthan and Gujarat is the lehenga choli or ghagra choli. While the tribal and rural women favored theembroidered lehenga choli made up of cotton fabric bedecked with embroidery andmirror work, women belonging to royal families afford more intricate brocade,tanchoi and weighty satins even with real gold and silver embroidery, studdedwith valuable stones
