Monument
of weaves"
A silk sari is not a mere garment — it is a living testimony of the subcontinent's hand weaving skills.
It's also a personal museum of memories, of sorts, with a grandmother or the mother handing her bundle of life stories over to the next generation with the sari.