Beauty is something that few understand and few possess. You can do more than see it, it is felt within you. It is the expression of your soul in the light. When you see something you find it truly beautiful it is like the feeling of being in love, irresistible, strong and pure.

JOH RIVA AJ

A beautiful woman when you look at her face and think of her soul. When you look at her eyes and feel her love for you. When you feel her attractiveness because of her gentleness and other virtues.

Someone that catches your breath and your heart, it makes you recognize that to be on the same planet is the beautiful thing.

Everything about the human race has its own charm. Beautiful is often used synonymously with hot or sexy. That is not the case. High body fat and unfortunately large breasts does not make a girl beautiful. Beauty is a multi-dimensional thing. It comes from the right combination of personality, confidence, and of course physical attraction.
