A close-up photograph of a traditional Indian lehenga. The fabric is a rich, deep pink color, heavily embellished with intricate floral embroidery. The embroidery features a variety of flower shapes, including large, multi-petaled blossoms and smaller, delicate sprigs. The threads used in the embroidery are in shades of pink, purple, green, and gold. Interspersed among the floral patterns are numerous small, round sequins and larger, faceted zircon stones, which catch the light and add a shimmering effect. The lehenga is shown in a draped manner, with a sheer, matching pink net overlay visible on the left side. The background is a light-colored wall with a subtle, repeating floral pattern in a muted green or grey tone.

A purple lehenga with intricate floral embroidery and sequins. The fabric is a deep purple color, and the embroidery features large, stylized flowers in shades of pink, red, and green, interspersed with smaller floral motifs and clusters of sequins and zircon diamonds. The lehenga is shown against a background of a light green patterned fabric.
