A woman with long dark hair is standing in a modern interior, modeling a black long-sleeved tunic and trousers set. The tunic has a buttoned placket and a flared hem. She is standing on a large, round, woven straw rug. In the background, there is a wooden floor, a white wall with a framed painting of a woman's face, a small wooden side table with a potted plant, and a large television. The lighting is soft and even.
