A close-up photograph of a purple lehenga choli. The fabric is a deep purple with a subtle sheen. It is heavily embellished with gold thread embroidery and small, clear crystals. The design features a wide, ornate border at the bottom, a vertical band of embroidery down the center, and scattered floral motifs across the main body. The embroidery includes delicate floral patterns, a central medallion-like design, and a wide border with a repeating geometric and floral motif. The crystals are small and round, adding a sparkling effect to the gold thread work.
