Top: The top is crafted in pure muslin, adorned with soft digital prints that come alive through subtle embroidery highlights. An organza scalloped border, detailed with fine resham embroidery, frames the neckline, sleeves, and hemline, adding depth and dimension. Intricate handwork and floral appliqué complete the ensemble, creating a harmonious blend of texture and artistry.

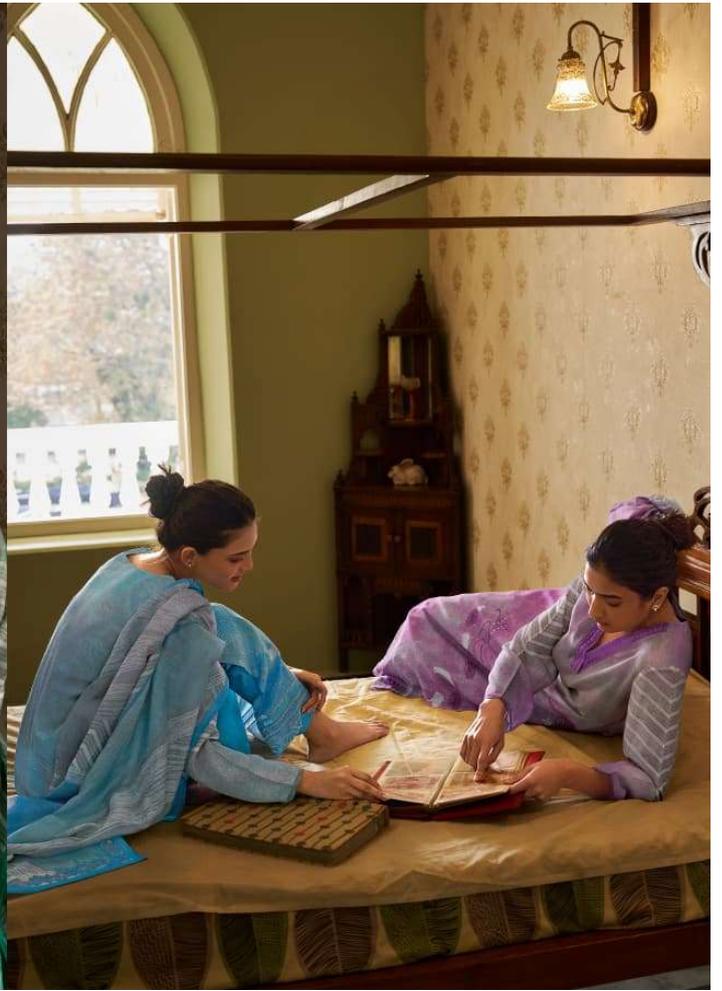

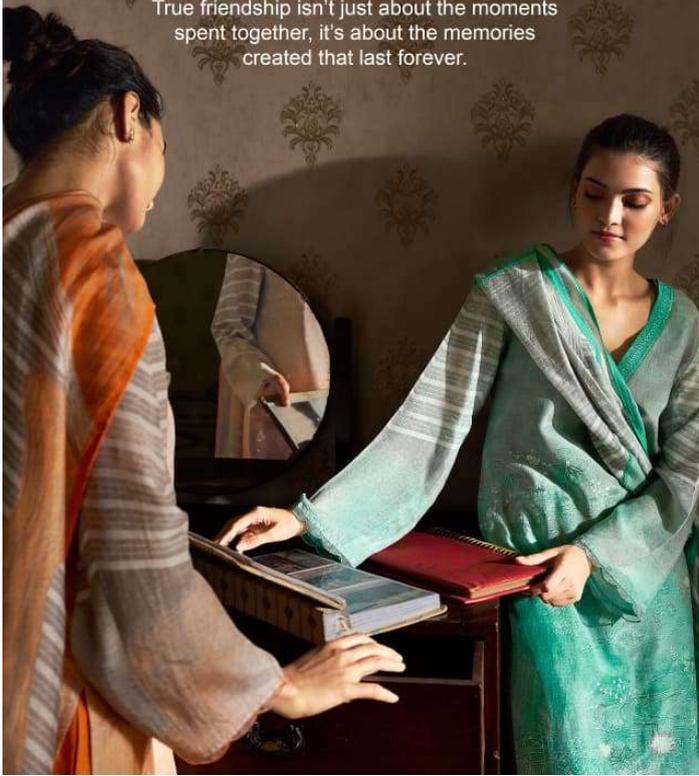

Bottom: Paired with a heavy pure muslin bottom, the look balances fluidity with structure, effortless, refined, and timeless.

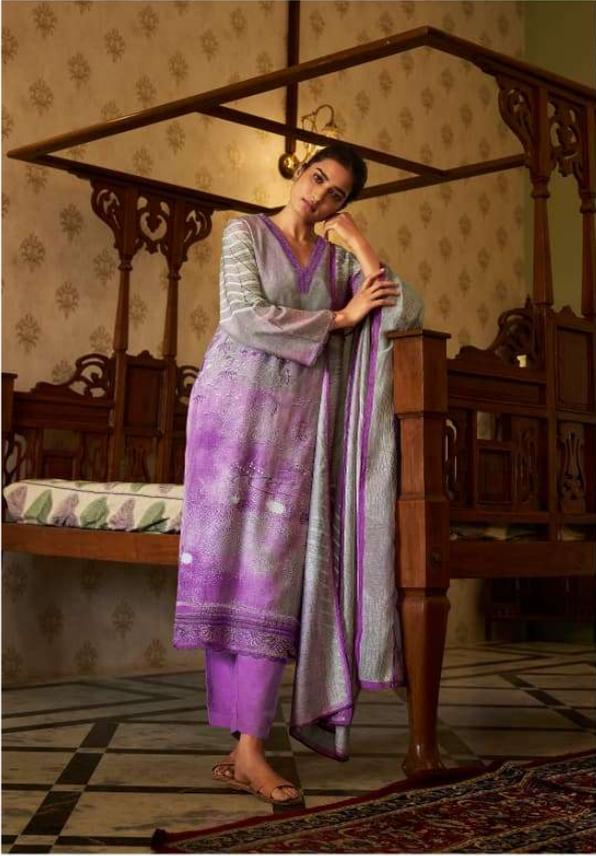

Dupatta: The dupatta, rendered in pure muslin with coordinated digital prints, is elevated with delicate crochet detailing and finely embroidered patches at the corners, lending a graceful, artisanal finish.

CHAPTER-3

COMING SOON

A woman with dark hair tied back, wearing a light blue and white embroidered dress, sits on a bed with a dark wooden headboard. She is looking down at a photo album held by a man whose back is to the camera. The room has patterned wallpaper and a window with an arched frame in the background.
