

Blouse

The image shows a traditional Indian saree laid out on a white surface. The saree has a wide, vibrant red body and a decorative border in a deep green color. This border is adorned with a repeating pattern of stylized orange and yellow flowers with blue centers, interspersed with green leaves. A piece of maroon-colored fabric, intended to be a blouse, is placed over the lower portion of the saree. The word "Blouse" is printed in a white, bold, sans-serif font with a black outline, centered on the maroon fabric.
