In the 21st century the style trends of the fashion industry dominate the world more than they ever did, and control not only the way people dress but also trends in home wear design, makeup, fashion and people's overall attitudes. In the 60s flower power did not only mean flowers and music, it summed up the whole attitude of a generation and this is even more prominent today.

In the 21st century the style trends of the fashion industry dominate the world more than they ever did and control not only the way people dress but also trends in home wear design, wedding fashion and people's overall attitudes. In the 90s flower power did not only mean flowers and peace, it signified the whole attitude of a generation, and this is even more prominent today.

In the 21st century the style trends of the fashion industry dominate the world more than they ever did, and control not only the way people dress but also trends in home wear design, makeup, fashion and people's overall attitudes. In the 60s flower power did not only mean flares and tunics, it summed up the whole attitude of a generation, and this woven more prominent today.

A woman is standing in a traditional Indian architectural setting, possibly a palace or a historical building. She is wearing a purple and gold saree with a subtle pattern. She is looking towards the camera with a slight smile. The background features ornate carvings and arches, with a warm, golden light illuminating the scene.
