Elegance is not standing out, but being remembered. The hardest thing in fashion is not to be known for a logo, but to be known for a silhouette.

Being well dressed hasn't much to do with having good clothes. It's a question of good balance and good common sense. Clothes mean nothing until someone lives in them.

"Anyone can get dressed up and glamorous, but it is how people dress in their day off that are the most intriguing."

*Never, ever confuse what happens on a runway with fashion. A runway is spectacle. It's only fashion when a woman puts it on.
Being well dressed hasn't much to do with having good clothes. It's a question of good balance and good common sense."*

Fashion is about dressing according to what's fashionable. Style is more about being yourself.

Style is something each of us already has, all we need to do is find it.

*Real style is never right or wrong. It's a matter of being yourself on purpose. Don't be into trends. Don't make fashion own you.
But decide what you are.*

What you wear is how you present yourself to the world, especially today, when human contacts are so quick.
Fashion is silent language. You can have everything you want in life if you dress for it.
